

Ensure You Receive AOC Emails

Never miss important updates from the Association of Old Crows

Why Email Delivery Matters

Without reliable email delivery from AOC, you may miss:

- Early bird registration for the AOC Convention and other mission-critical summits
- Time-sensitive professional development, including courses and webinars
- Exclusive member benefits and industry updates, including new issues of the Journal of Electromagnetic Dominance, eCrow, and Spectrum Watch

What You Can Do Right Now

Add these email domains to your Safe Sender list to ensure AOC emails reach your inbox:

- @crows.org
- @naylorconnect.com

Step-by-Step Instructions

Microsoft Outlook

- Click the Settings gear icon (top right)
- Select Mail, then Junk email
- Under "Safe senders and domains," click Add
- Enter @crows.org and click Add
- Repeat for @naylorconnect.com
- Click Save

Gmail

- Open any AOC email in your inbox
- Click the three vertical dots at the top right of the email
- Select Filter messages like these
- In the "From" field, enter @crows.org
- Click Create filter
- Check the box for Never Send to Spam
- Click Create filter
- Repeat the process for @naylorconnect.com

What Your IT Department Needs To Do

If your organization uses enterprise-level content filtering or email security solutions, your IT department will need to whitelist the following domains and IP addresses:

- crows.org (172.67.74.29)
- aocconvention.org (192.64.119.222)
- aoceurope.org (104.131.4.79)
- jedonline.com (141.193.213.20)

For IT Administrators: Please add these domains and IP addresses to your organization's email allowlist, spam filter exceptions, and firewall rules to ensure uninterrupted delivery of AOC communications.
